

Privacy Policy (Personal Data Processing)

This Privacy Policy describes how personal data is processed and protected on the website tixonix.tech (the “Website”).

Data Controller: an individual applying the Professional Income Tax regime (self-employed) operating under the name Tixonix.

Contact for privacy requests: Telegram @TIVONIX.

Personal data we may process (provided voluntarily by you): name, email address, Telegram handle or phone number, company name (if provided), project description and any other information you submit through the contact/request form.

We may also process technical data automatically transmitted when you use the Website (e.g., IP address and browser/device data).

Purposes of processing: handling requests, contacting you back, preliminary project review and estimating the cost of services, and providing consultations.

Legal basis: your consent, expressed by submitting a request via the Website or contacting us through the provided channels.

Retention: personal data is stored no longer than necessary to achieve the purposes above, or until you withdraw your consent.

Data sharing: we do not share your personal data with third parties, except where required by applicable law.

Your rights: you may request information about the processing of your data, request correction or deletion, and withdraw consent. To exercise these rights, contact us via Telegram @TIVONIX.

We apply reasonable organizational and technical measures to protect personal data from unauthorized access.
